שיחה

What do the objects say?

Mrs. Kersh is sad because everyone is busy... And what does the towel think? In an entertaining game, you can bring different objects to life in the house and “chat” with them. Each time, choose a different object that one of the family members will voice and the rest will ask him questions.

המחזה

Actors from the kitchen

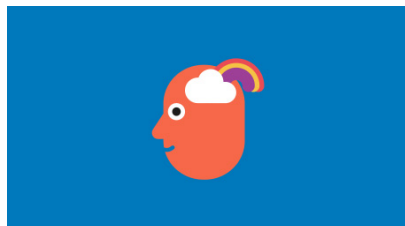

You can dramatize the book with actors available in every home – kitchen utensils! Read the story aloud and the children will activate the board, rolling pin and their friends, joining in the familiar sentences.

שְׁלוּב הַסֵּפֶר

What's needed and what's out there

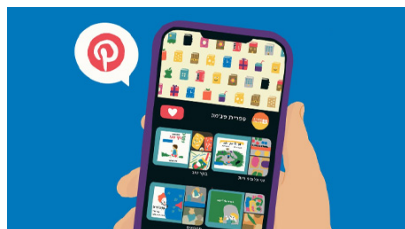

Place various kitchen utensils on the table, for example – a ladle, a peeler, a large bowl. Each time, someone will choose a dish they like, and the rest will have to decide what tools are needed to prepare it and leave only them on the table.
