Buy from me!
You can play an entertaining sales game together: each member of the family chooses an object and tries – through advertisements or creative promotions – to convince the others to "buy" it.

Corn Evening from the Stories
Aya and Libby sell corn in special shapes. Plan a family corn celebration together – what would you choose? A movie night with corn and whipped cream or maybe a Mexican party?

Combining ideas to create a character together

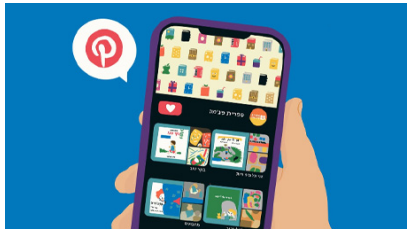

When you combine ideas, you get unique things. Draw a simple circle on a piece of paper – each one in turn adds a different color, such as three green eyes or a funny purple tail. Which character did you come up with? Maybe you're going to splash?
