

By: Tamar Hochstadter
Illustrations: Aya Gordon-Noy
Publisher: עם עובד
Age Group: Daycare (2-3)

קְרִיאָה

Family reading advice

Toddlers enjoy reading books together, and when they focus on the story, they use their learning, concentration and imagination abilities. To "get into" the story and allow them to concentrate, you should disconnect from the world for a few minutes, sit somewhere calm, with no background noises, screens or mobile phones, and fly together on the story's wings.

שִׂיחָה

פעם אני החתול ופעם אני החתולה

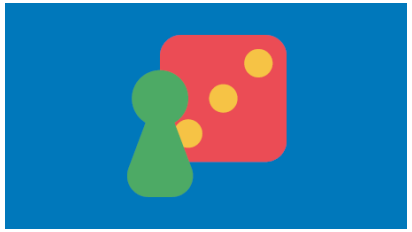

This short book is full of experiences from toddlers' day-to-day lives: They want to take part, sometimes they experience rejection, they strive to be independent and are busy finding solutions. You can discuss such moments in the story with your toddlers and link them to their world: What did the girl cat want? How did she feel when the boy cat didn't want her to join him? What did she decide to do? Do you also enjoy going out for a walk? And what do you like doing all by yourself?

מִשְׂחָק

Let's go for a walk!

You can suggest packing a small bag and going for a walk with your toddler, just like the girl cat, in your home or neighborhood. Together, you can think of all the things you need to take with you on your walk – a bottle of water? A hat? How about a toy?

כְּלָלִי

What do the illustrations tell us?

When you look at the illustrations together, you could focus your attention on different things each time – Where is the boy cat? And where is the girl cat? What are they doing? Which items can you identify in the picture?

הַשְׁרָאָה

Pinterest

For more ideas for activities, check out our Pinterest page and discover more surprises.

